STUMP SPEECHES ARE NOT PLANNED BY MR. ROOSEVELT

Says He Has Made Only Three Dates and They
Not Political.

Iowa Standpat Governor Secures Re-Nomination.

RESULTS OF CLOSE PRIMARY.

London, June 9.—There will be no speech by Roosevelt to open the next congressional campaign, as planned by men in control of the League of Republican clubs. The convention of that organization in New York next month will have to get along without him. The story that he has planned a speaking tour is not founded on fact. Roosevelt today authorized the United Press to deny the report that he has accepted an invitation to address the league. His friends say the stories are circulated for political effect. They declare the alleged engagements were circulated to make it appear that Roosevelt intends to aid in a factional fight. He has three positive engagements of a non-political nature.

His only positive engagements are to attend the dinner arranged by Robert Collier, of New York, his address to the rough riders and to the conservation congress and his speech on John Brown day.

Smith, of Kansas City, Mo. After business they had an interesting talk from Ladies McCubbins and Smith and an address of welcome from Lady Commander Mrs. Farrington.

Printing Committee Lacks Quorum.
Because of the failure of a quorum to appear last night, the meeting of the printing committee of the general council was postponed indefinitely. A meeting probably will be called this week, as the matter of printing the revised city ordinances and compiling them in book form is important.

COMMERCE BOARD HAS GREAT TASK

PREPARING TO INVESTIGATE IN-CREASES IN RAILROAD
FREIGHT RATES.

Washington, June 9.—Members of the interstate-commerce commission today prepared for a long struggle with the proposed rate increases. As soon as the railroad bill is law, the commission will start the machinery to determine the reasonableness of the suggested increase. Congress is struggling with the law, but the stupendous task will be the work of the commission. On the passage of the law special agents will be sent to the headquarters of the roads. They have the power to enforce demands for any information at the disposal of the railroad. Their conclusions will be laid before the commission as a basis for the investigation. Later the roads will be called on to appear before the commission to justify the increases.

Colley Houser.
Colley, the two and one-half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Houser, 1014 South Fourth street, died at 11 o'clock last night of dysentery. The funeral cortege left the residence at 3 o'clock this afternoon and the funeral took place at the Goebel Avenue Christian church, the pastor, the Rev. Phillips, officiating. Burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

Guggenheims Bogey of Mexico, and Effort Will be Made to Show That Diaz Has Sympathy of Wall Street

Attention of Congress Called to Relations of Copper,
Sugar and Rubber Interests to Government.

Washington, June 9.—Charges that Diaz, president of Mexico, is able to use officers of the United States as tools in the prosecution of his political enemies, will be made tomorrow before the house committee on rules, which is considering the resolution of Wilson, of Pennsylvania, to create a joint investigation committee. John Kenneth Turner, author of "Barbarous Mexico," and L. Gutierrez Delara, his co-worker, will produce documentary evidence which they believe will substantiate the charges. It is expected to be shown that Wall Street interests, owning concessions in Mexico worth $900,000,000, given them by Diaz, forced American officers to prosecute mercilessly Mexicans in the United States opposing Diaz. Turned de-clared financial interests are heavily indebted to Diaz, and paid their obligations by bringing pressure on the federal government to accomplish Diaz's wishes.

Following the statements upon which the allegations will be based, that the Guggenheims control the copper output of Mexico, they own practically all the mines and smelters; the Continental Rubber company controls the rubber lands of Mexico; the Southern Pacific and Harriman heirs control two-thirds of the railway lines of Mexico; the sugar trust has a monopoly of the sugar business in Mexico; the Wells-Fargo Express company has a monopoly of express in Mexico.

Turner declares the Mexican government employs detective agencies to spy on refugees. The feeling is growing throughout Mexico against the action of the government in practically forcing Raymond Corral on the people as a candidate for vice-president. Diaz's statements that Mexico will have a chance to vote quieted the agitation for a time, but it was aroused when Senor Madero, addressing a crowd at Saltillo, was forcibly stopped. Two hundred were arrested and a riot followed. Madero was prevented from making speeches in many places. He is a candidate for president against Diaz.

Diaz is popular in a way, but there is objection to his administration and in pushing Corral is highly unpopular. It is generally conceded that Mexico has had no election for years, but the Madero faction is demanding fair play in the coming contest.

Wire Down; Operators Killed.

Mexico City, Mex., June 9.—With telegraph wires cut and operators murdered or forced to flee, definite information is lacking as to the situation at Valladolid, Yucatan, the scene of the massacre by the Indian insurgents several days ago. The meager advices received by the government authorities today estimate the number of killed at forty.

More than 2,000 Indians are said to have been engaged in the raid upon the towns.

At the war department here it was said that troops are already en route to the scene and with the local forces will be able to restore order. Additional troops are in readiness, however, if necessary.

No Longer Denied.

El Paso, Texas, June 9.—The Mexican government no longer denies the situation at Valladolid,

Stranger Looks Like Louisville Murderer

A stranger in Ballard county, whose description tallied with that of Joseph Wendling, the missing Louisville janitor, suspected of the murder of little Alma Kellner, was coaxed out of a hay loft on a farm two and one-half miles from Bardonia Monday night by Dr. Robert Rivers. After the tramp had gone he was struck with the man's close resemblance to the photograph of Wendling and he notified Detectives Moore and Collins at Paducah.

THE WEATHER

The predictions and temperature for the past twenty-four hours will be found at the top of the seventh column on page four.

UNHOLY LOVE.

Chicago, June 9.—Murder and suicide, with a love motive, were revealed today by the discovery of the body of Frank Campbell a short distance from the lonely spot where Miss Lena Hansen was found last night. Both were shot in the heart. Campbell was married, but infatuated.

which was sacked by rebels, Maya Indians are desperate. He despatched General Brazo with 1,000 soldiers. Gunboats are there.

Mexicans here have received advices today that Francisco Madero, candidate for president of Mexico, was placed under "formal" arrest yesterday by order of government officials.

The arrest of Madero is taken to mean that in opposition Diaz's reelection will be wiped out as Madero probably will be sent from the country on a "mission," as other opponents of Diaz at other times are scattered over the world on "missions."

WAREHOUSE FIRE AT MAYFIELD

CAUSES LOSS OF $12,000 TO MR.
FRANK MCCLAIN, OF THAT CITY.

Mayfield, Ky., June 9. (Special.)—Fire last night destroyed the tobacco warehouse of Frank McClain, entailing a loss of nearly $12,000. The building was not insured. The tobacco was about half covered by insurance. There were about 100,000 pounds in storage. The origin of the fire is not known. McClain does a great deal of hauling between Paducah and Mayfield and is well known in McCracken county.

Charge Against White Boys.

Frank Sanders, colored, who lives in Arcadia, complained to Chief of Police Singery today that two young white boys accosted his 12-year-old daughter Grace, yesterday afternoon while she was alone at the house. The police have a description of the boys.

A Russian couple were married this morning at the court house by County Judge Abner W. Barkley. The bride was Miss Annie Singerman and the groom was Sol Klinsky. The couple came to Paducah from St. Louis, but have been in the United States only a short time and could not speak English distinctly.

AUTOMOBILE TAGS.

Automobile owners may procure registration certificates for automobiles at the office of Col. Gus G. Singleton, county court clerk. Next Monday the state law, requiring all owners of automobiles to have their machines registered with the secretary of state and procure tags, will become effective. The blanks have been received and the owners of the machines are calling at the office for them.

COMMENCEMENT OF HIGH SCHOOL THIS EVENING

Exercises Will be Held in Kentucky Theater—Dr.
Claxton Orator.

Class Day Exercises Drew
Large Crowd.

RECEPTION WAS A SUCCESS.

Twenty-two graduates of the 1910 class of the High school will receive their sheepskins tonight when the annual commencement exercises will be held at the Kentucky theater. The advance sale of tickets has been large, and a filled house is assured for the exercises. The sweet girl graduates with their spotless gowns of white will make an effective scene. This year as usual the school trustees will enforce the edict that flowers may not be received by the graduates on the stage. However, the stage will be decorated with potted plants and flowers.

The honor pupils of both divisions of the class will deliver the address for the class, while the address on the evening will be delivered by Dr. P. P. Claxton, of the University of the South, of Knoxville, Tenn. The members of the faculty will be seated on the stage with the graduates, while the school trustees will occupy a box. The program is:

Class Day Exercises.

Larger seating capacity than the High school auditorium was needed last night to accommodate the friends of the graduating class at the class day exercises. The auditorium was packed until it was impossible to secure standing room. Before this large audience the young graduates won frequent applause for their clever class day program.

The first part of the exercises was given over to the members of the January division of the class, and an illustrated monologue, "Old Classmates of Mine," was given. Modeled after the poem of James Whitcomb Riley's "Old Sweethearts of Mine," the reader, Miss May Bonds, saw the visions of her classmates five years from commencement. By the use of the spotlight the scene was made unusually attractive. As she recalled her old classmates, they appeared on the stage as living pictures. The pictures represented were: Miss Ellen Rutter, "A Little School Girl"; Miss Jessie Ackler, "An Athletic Girl"; Miss Elizabeth Weemer, "The Prima Donna"; Miss Alice Byrne, "Professor of Latin"; Miss Marjorie Fiegle, "The Winter Girl"; Miss Mildred Piper, "The Summer Girl"; Miss Lillian Phillips, "The Riding Girl"; Miss Margaret Jean Carnagey, "The Debutante"; Miss Lucile Harth, "The Merry Widow"; Miss Kate Steinhauer, "The Tourist."

Three Will Die As Result of Fall When Scaffold Broke Yesterday At Bridge Over Cumberland River

Two of the Victims Sustained Broken Backs and Third is Suffering From Peritonitis
Caused by Internal Injuries

Fears of the physicians were confirmed today when it was determined that three of the men who fell from the Cumberland river bridge yesterday can not recover. Malcolm Livingston, of Newark, O., and Henry Hershey, of New Orleans, both have fractures of their spinal columns and are paralyzed in the lower limbs. Joe Waltrip, of Calvert City, sustained serious internal injuries and peritonitis has developed.

Although thorough examinations were made yesterday by the physicians of the staff of the Illinois Central hospital, it was impossible to determine the seriousness of their injuries until today. The spinal columns of Livingston and Hershey are fractured in the same place, about the middle of the back. Livingston is in a more serious condition, and he is not expected to survive many days, as he sustained internal injuries also. Hershey is in a serious condition, but his excellent physique may enable him to live for several weeks. Waltrip remains in a stupor, and has never regained consciousness. It was ascertained definitely this morning that he was seriously injured internally. Frank Meese, of St. Joe, Ind., escaped with the slightest injuries and will be up as soon as able to bear weight upon his ankles.

Although his spine was fractured, when Hershey reached the city yesterday and was taken from the baggage care to be placed in the ambulance, he was calmly smoking a cob pipe. They bear their suffering with great fortitude.

Three Killed.

St. Louis, June 9.—Three were killed and five injured, three fatally, when an iron mountain fast mail was derailed in the outskirts of St. Louis this morning. The dead are: Walter Douglas, engineer; Robert Sheppard, fireman; Jasper Laster, mail clerk.

Berlin, June 9.—According to the Lokal Anzeiger, Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the Arctic explorer, has instituted suit in the Berlin courts against Commander Robert E. Peary. The paper says that Cook seeks to recover $10,000, which he alleges to be due him in payment for bear skins and other polar products delivered to the commander.

ROBBER AND BURNED

Leavenworth, Kas., June 1.—Mrs. Katherine Schultz, a wealthy reclus, of 65, was robbed and murdered in her home early this morning. Her body was saturated with oil and fired. It was found in the cellar, where it had fallen through the burned floor. She was reputed to be worth $40,000.

MARION WILL NOT JOIN THE LEAGUE

LEAVES HENDERSON OUTSIDE,
LOOKING FOR PARTNER—
MAY BE OWENSBORO.

After raising all the money necessary, Marion, Ill., declined to enter the Kitty league, according to a telegram received today by Treasurer W. E. Cochran from President C. C. Gossnell. For several days there have been rumors that Marion would not enter the league, but nothing definite until the telegram was received today. Henderson has secured a team and was waiting until June 15, when Marion and Henderson were to be admitted to the league. This makes it necessary to line-up another city for the league if the circuit is extended to cover six cities. Owensboro has a crack independent team, and it is probable that efforts will be made to secure the Kentucky city for the sixth team.

Sam Goodman, a well known local player, is after a berth as umpire to succeed Condit, who resigned. Goodman was recommended to President Gossnell by Mr. Cochran. Goodman is a popular player, and if selected will make a good umpire.

CONSERVATIVES WILL USE SPEECH

WILL TAKE ADVANTAGE OF
WHAT ROOSEVELT SAID ABOUT EGYPT.

London, June 9.—The first move of the Conservatives to make capital of Roosevelt's Guild hall address will be taken Monday, according to Sir Henry Dalziel, who will ask Foreign Secretary Grey if the government has lost confidence in Sir Gorst, consul general of Egypt. Dalziel is a Conservative in Parliament. The query is expected to force the government either to approve or disapprove Gorst's administration. Conservatives insist that Roosevelt's strictures are well taken, and wish to bring the question to an issue before the impression created by his speech is effaced.

ROYAL GRAFT CAUSES POPULAR DISCONTENT

Lisbon, June 9.—Early abdication of the throne by the youthful king, Manuel, in favor and his uncle, Duke Operto, is the rumor in official circles today. The people's unrest over financial troubles of the royal household is given as the reason. Disclosures of alleged grafting by the dowager queen turned the people against the king.

FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

The robber who touched William A. Miner, the Chicago millionaire, for his $50,000 roll last Thursday night while he was en route from Chicago to New York on the Twentieth Century Limited train, is believed to have been in Paducah yesterday, catching a south-bound train last night.

Detective T. J. Moore received word yesterday morning from train officials at Cairo asking him to meet the Cairo accommodation train arriving here at 7:30 a. m. A man carrying a grip and suspected of being the robber, jumped into the sleeper at Cairo before officers could nab him and it was planned to catch him here. The rear door of the Pullman was locked and the conductor took his post at the front door. When the train stopped at Eleventh street and Broadway the suspect had the porter unlock the rear door and he darted out, jumped in a cab and disappeared. Detective Moore continued his search and saw the same man standing in front of the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church yesterday afternoon. Having no authority, Mr. Moore did not approach him. Inside the man's grip were said to be $30,000 in negotiable papers.

HANGING FOR WRECKERS.

Louisiana Senate Passes Bill Providing Death Penalty.

Baton Rouge, La., June 9.—In the Louisiana assembly the senate passed the Oglesby bill, which demands capital punishment for persons convicted of wrecking or attempting to wreck a railroad train. During the last two sessions several trains carrying members of the assembly have been wrecked on their way to Baton Rouge.

Want Escaped Prisoner

Princeton, Ky., police have asked the aid of the local department in capturing Harvey McChesney, a dark copper colored negro, wanted there on a charge of murder. He is five feet, ten inches in height, weighs about 165 pounds, and wears a small mustache. He is said to be connected with the murder of young Guess. McChesney escaped from jail at Princeton about two weeks ago.

INDIANS DEFRAUDED OF THEIR LANDS IS CHARGE

Minneapolis, June 9.—Fraud alleged in transfers of land of the Oklahoma Indians will be investigated by the courts, as a result of the decision of the United States circuit court of appeals at St. Paul. It brings into question titles of more than 20,000 parcels of land sold by Indians. While the men got the land by tribal distribution, the government claims the tracts have been held contrary to restrictions of the apportioning act.

CITY TREASURER IS CASTDIAN OF MONEY

Frankfort, Ky., June 9. (Special.)—The appellate court today reversed the decision of the McCracken circuit court in the suit of George W. Walters, city treasurer of Paducah, against John J. Dorian, former city treasurer and the depository to collect them to turn over to him the sinking fund belonging to the city of Paducah. In the circuit court the petition of Walters was dismissed, and he appealed.

The court holds that neither the mayor nor the sinking fund commissioners have the right to make deposit of funds due the sinking fund or to have control or possession of the money to the credit of this fund, except such control as may be necessary to enable them to issue warrants upon it for legitimate purposes. The fund is in the legal custody of the city treasurer and he is liable on his bond for its safety.

Livestock.

Louisville, June 9.—The receipts of sheep and lambs were 3,433 head, making a total of 11,583 head for the three days this week as against 4,065 for the same days last week, 18,063 for the same days last year, and 12,200 for a corresponding period two years ago. All the buyers were out bright and early this morning, wanting good lambs and the trade ruled strong and active; yesterday's high record of prices being easily maintained, the best lambs selling quickly at $9.25 @ 9.40, and not near enough to fill orders; seconds sold at $6.50 @ 7.00, mostly from $5 @ 6.25. Fat sheep were firm at $5 down, some fancy would bring a premium, common and medium sheep slow. The pens were well cleared early in the day and the market closed in good shape.

Hogs.

The receipts of hogs today were light, 1,398 head, for the three days this week 3,391. The market opened early and ruled active at an advance of 20c on all grades, selected hogs, 90 pounds and up, selling readily at $9.45, light pigs $8.45, roughs $8.75 down. The pens were well cleared and the market closed firm.

Cattle.

The receipts of cattle today were exceptionally light, 78 head, for the three days this week 1,402 head. The attendance of buyers was light, the demand rather small, and the market quiet with but few changes in values or conditions. Handy weight butcher cattle were in fair request and steady, while other kinds of butcher cattle were slow sale, grassy half fat 900 pounds to 1,100 pounds steers are about the slowest sale of any class and the decline during the past several weeks has been greater on that class of cattle than any others. The feeder and stocker market was quiet, some demand for the best, others neglected. Good bulls steady, common bulls and canners dull. Milch cows slow. No prime heavy cattle here, feeding steady. The pens were well cleared this evening.

Ready to Appear as Witness.

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 8.—Milton Oliver, who is regarded as the most important witness against the alleged night riders, which fact is supposed to have been the reason for an attack made upon his life several nights ago, was brought here last night from his home in Lyon county to be in readiness for the trials set for this term of court of several parties charged with participation in the raid on this city. Oliver was accompanied by his wife, son and daughter. The soldiers who have been guarding him since the attempted assassination are here also and will guard him during his stay here.

Missouri manufactured 27,733,260 corn cob pipes last year. These Missouri mosechaums were made in factories in Washington, Hermann, Union and a few smaller towns.

Paducah at Hopkinsville.
Vincennes at Clarksville.

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 9.—With comparative ease Hopkinsville took the first game of the series yesterday afternoon when Paducah was defeated 3 to 2. The score does not indicate how Hoptown outplayed Paducah, although in the sixth inning two Paducah batters were forced in, tying the score. In the eighth the Night Riders scored the third run, as that proved to be the winner. Light work with the stick was the cause of Paducah's downfall as well as the five errors. Fay, a recruit, pitched for Hoptown and did splendid work, letting the Indians down with a single bingle. Crane allowed only five hits, but bunched with errors they were sufficient to cause three runs.

In the fourth inning the locals started the run getting. Lynch singled, and took second. Weightman hit a high one to left that Angeneier muffed, and Lynch trotted over the home plate. In the fifth just one more was added. Crimmins reached first, but was forced out at second when Fay bunted. Fay stole second and scored when Bader singled.

The Indians spread on the war paint in the sixth inning, and tied up the score. Fumbling a grounder, a single by Mercer, and a spill of an infield fly, filled the sacks. Fay became unsteady under the strain and walked two men in succession, forcing Angeneier and Crane to cross the rubber. Fay rallied, and in the eighth saw his team mates win what he had almost lost. Brown hit a single, and ran to second. Weightman lifted one over third, and the tall first baseman scored.

Hoyt's Pitching.

Clarksville, Tenn., June 9.—Hoyt's great pitching, Keen's hitting overcame the errors of Clarksville today, and enabled the team to win over Vincennes in a ninth-inning finish by a score of 4 to 3. Hoyt pitched marvelous ball, and allowed the Alcees only one hit, although Clarksville's eight errors nearly threw away the game. However, in the last inning Keen rapped out his fifth hit of the day, and scored a runner, saving the day. The Volunteers secured nine hits, and Vincennes used two pitchers.

CORRECT WAY TO CRANK YOUR AUTO.

There's a right and wrong way of cranking an automobile, says Robert Sloss in the June Outing.

"The prevalence of sprained thumbs among even licensed chauffeurs shows pretty clearly that, granting they know enough, they do not always use their brains to the extent of not grasping the handle with the thumb when cranking the machine. The instinct of brawn is to push on down over the compression. It is the cardinal rule of brain never to push down over the compression, for the reason that, in case you have left your spark lever forward, the spark will go off in some cylinder before the piston has passed dead center, driving the handle violently backward against your palm. The safe and rational way, when you feel the resistance of compression increasing on your upward pull but you are unable to pull over it before reaching the highest point, is not to pass that point, but releasing the handle from engagement, turn back and pull upward again, when you should turn over the compression on the upstroke."

CHAUTAUQUA OPENS SUNDAY WEEK

Strongest Program in Association's History Arranged For This Season.

A week from Sunday afternoon, June 19, the fifth annual meeting of the Paducah Chautauqua opens—and a program is assured for this season which will eclipse the best of former efforts. More money, more time and greater efforts have been put forth than ever before and the resulting improvement will be easily apparent.

Preparations are being made for a huge attendance on the opening day and one of the strongest musical features of the entire program will be the attraction for the opening session, 3:30 Sunday afternoon. The Parland-Newhall company is a male quartet, which is pronounced "top notch" by the biggest Chautauqua circuits in America and the flattering commendations which they have from newspapers and Chautauqs from Maine to California indicate that a rare treat is in store for visitors on that day. The Parland-Newhall company is nothing if not versatile, for they appear to advantage during the performance as vocal quartet, brass quartet and in some really musical bell-ringing numbers which are distinctly novel.

Those who delight in a forcefully prepared and beautifully delivered lecture won't miss the star feature for Sunday evening, 8 p. m. Dr. Frank Crane, one of the most famous lecturers on the American platform will deliver one of his best numbers, which he calls "What Will You Do With It." Competent critics pronounce this lecture a perfect gem of thought. And it is certain that Dr. Crane, with his perfect command of our mother tongue will do it full justice.

Dr. Crane's lecture will be preceded by a short vesper service, which all will enjoy and it is hoped that as many as can will come in time for that also.

The program for the entire week is published in a large advertisement elsewhere in this issue and a mere glance will assure you that you will get full value for the small amount involved in the purchase of a season ticket. These tickets are now in the hands of most Paducah merchants at only $1.50 each; the price of tickets after the opening will advance to $2, however. As many families are in the habit of buying several tickets, this saving of 50 cents on each one is well worth reckoning.

MAY NOW FIND GRAFT IN CAR REPAIRING.

Illinois Central Disclosures Start Investigations By All Big Railroads.

Chicago, Ill., June 9.—The disclosures made in the bill filed by the Illinois Central road regarding the conspiracy by which the company was defrauded out of more than $1,500,000 in connection with car repairs caused considerable excitement in local railway circles. Prior to the filing of the bill high railway officials were inclined to believe that no fraud of magnitude had been uncovered on the Illinois Central, but when the truth became known a check of car repair bills was ordered on most of the large railway systems.

One of the big western roads had proceeded far enough with the check to learn that car repairs on that road did not average more than $60 per car for the period involved in the Illinois Central's suit and that the average age of its cars was considerably greater than those of the Illinois Central. Another system discovered that it had paid on an average nearly as high as that of the Illinois Central, but that it had secured double the mileage with its cars, thereby bringing the comparison more within reason.

The American Car and Equipment company, which is in no way connected with the American Car and Foundry company, today employed a legal firm to defend it. A member of the firm stated the "other side of the story" might be given soon.

R. parade passed the "Little General's" house drums were muffled and flags lowered. General Bragg celebrated his 84th birthday in February.

KNOWLEDGE OF FOOD.

Proper Selection of Great Importance in Summer.
The feeding of infants is a very serious proposition, as all mothers know. Food must be used that will easily digest, or the undigested parts will be thrown into the intestines and cause sickness.

It is important to know that a food can be obtained that is always safe; that is Grape-Nuts.
A Texas mother writes: "My baby took the first premium at a baby show and is in every way a prize baby. I have fed him on Grape-Nuts since he was five months old. I also use your Postum for myself."

Grape-Nuts food is not made solely for a baby food, by any means, but is manufactured for all human beings.

One special point of value is that the food is partially predigested in the process of manufacture, not by any drugs or chemicals whatsoever, but simply by the action of heat, moisture, and time which permits the diastase to grow, and change the starch into dextrin, a portion of which is further changed to dextrose or grape-sugar. This presents food to the system ready for immediate assimilation.

Its especial value as a food, beyond the fact that it is easily digested, is that it supplies the needed elements to quickly rebuild the cells in the brain and nerve centres throughout the body.
Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville, in pkgs. 'There's a Reason.'"

I suffered also with dull heavy headaches and the action of my bladder was annoying and painful. I read of Foley Kidney Pills and after taking them a few weeks the headaches left me, the action of my bladder was again normal, and I was free of all distress."—Gilbert's Drug Store.

JOHNSON'S ISLAND

CONFEDERATE MONUMENT IS UNVEILED.

Graves of Prisoners of War Buried There Cared for By G. A. R. of Ohio.

Sandusky, O., June 9.—In the presence of several hundred southerners, representing nearly all the states in the Confederacy, a monument to the memory of 206 Confederate officers and privates, buried on Johnson's island, Sandusky Bay, Lake Erie, was dedicated.

The monument, erected by the Robert Patton chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, of Cincinnati, was unveiled by Mrs. Mary Patton Hudson, of Cincinnati, daughter of Robert Patton, a noted southern ranger.

The dedicatory address was delivered by Gen. George W. Gordon, of Memphis, Tenn., commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans. Other addresses were delivered by Gen. Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, Ky., Jos. A. Mangus, of Cincinnati, and Sir Moses Ezekiel, of Rome, Italy, designer of the monument. Sir Moses Ezekiel was a soldier under Gen. Robert E. Lee.

The movement to erect the statue originated with Robert Patton chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, of Cincinnati, O. The chapter purchased the cemetery in 1908, when it was found that the spot around which so many historic memories clustered was being neglected and practically abandoned. Its only visitors were the veterans of a Grand Army post, who every Decoration Day held memorial services for their former foes.

Land Was Donated.

The greatest number of prisoners confined on the island at any one time was about 3,000. This was just prior to the close of the war. All in all about 10,000 officers and soldiers were imprisoned there and 220 deaths were recorded. Fourteen of the dead were buried on the mainland.

When the first prisoners died Mr. Johnson gave his consent to their burial on the island, and the cemetery was laid out under his personal direction. No lease on the land was ever executed and no compensation given for its use. Subsequently at the close of the war Mr. Johnson, at his own expense, built a wire fence around the plot and kept it in repair for several years. Later on an officer from the Columbus Federal barracks visited the island and had the original fence removed and a more substantial one erected in its stead. For many years afterwards the cemetery was allowed to fall into decay, until in 1881 the veterans of McMeens Post, Grand Army of the Republic, of Sandusky, O., paid a generous tribute to the men who had fought against them. They had the cemetery weeded and cared for, and on the Memorial Day following held services there similar to those held over the Union dead in Oakland cemetery, Sandusky.

Every succeeding Memorial Day up to three years ago they carried out similar services. As the veterans were all men in advanced years, they were forced in 1907 to discontinue their trips to the island. They decided also that in view of the fact that up to that time practically no interest had been shown in the Confederate graves by either the relatives or friends of those buried there there was no demand on them to continue the services.

The London Lancet says that English oyster beds are now being very carefully protected from sewerage contamination, whereas few foreign beds receive this protection.

"I WILL!"

Young men often make the mistake, when they start on an important undertaking, of leaving open a way of retreat if things go too hard, says Orison Swett Marden, in Success Magazine. No one can call out his greatest reserve, do the greatest thing possible to him, while he knows that if the battle gets too hot he has a line of retreat still left open. Only when there is no hope of escape will an army fight with that spirit of desperation which gives no quarter.

Many a great general in his march on the enemy has burned his bridges behind him, cut off his only possible retreat, for the bracing, encouraging effect upon himself and his army, because he knew that men only call out their greatest reserves of power when all retreat is cut off, and when fighting desperately for that which they count dearer than life.

We are so made that, as long as there is a chance to retreat, as long as there are bridges behind us, we are tempted to turn back when the great test comes.

"Will you hold this fort?" asked General Rosecrans of General Pierce at Stone River. "I will try, general." "Will you hold this fort?" "I will die in the attempt." "That won't do. Look me in the eye, sir, and tell me, 'will you hold this position?'" "I will!" said General Pierce, and he did.

The Power of Suggestion.

It was the reserve force stored up in the years of conquest and the habit of triumphing in whatever they undertook that gave such power to the Washingtons, the Lincolns, the Gladstones and the Disraelis, says Orison Swett Marden in "Success Magazine."

It is the reserve power which we feel back of the words and between the lines of a powerful book; not what is actually in the printed words that impresses us most.

We are not so much affected by what an orator like Webster actually says as we are by what he suggests; the latent power, the mighty reserve force that we feel he might put forth were the emergency great enough.

Personally appeared before me the 3rd day of May, 1910, R. D. MacMillen, Business Manager of The Sun, who affirms that the foregoing is a true and correct statement of its circulation for the month of April, 1910, to the best of his knowledge and belief.

PETER PURYEAR,

Notary Public.

My commission expires January 10, 1912.

THURSDAY, JUNE 9.

Daily Thought.

How often a man has cause to return thanks for enthusiasms of his friends! They are the little fountain that run down from the hills to refresh the mental desert of the despondent.—Henry Van Dyke.

We agree with Commander Hines that a broadside from an American gunboat would level the bluff at Bluefield.

Members of the Illinois legislature are awakening to the fact that competitive bidding for votes nets them greater individual returns than the co-operative jackpot scheme.

The "Iowa idea" has not yet been clearly expressed, it seems.

The death of Senator Fred L. Mansfield, of Tennessee, assistant attorney general of the United States, ends a promising career of public usefulness. Mr. Mansfield was just at the age when his powers were ripest. He was considered the leader of the last Tennessee legislature, which administered so severe rebuke to the Patterson administration.

If you hitch a three-minute horse up with a ten-minute horse; you simply reduce the speed of the three-minute horse—that is, until he kicks the singletree loose and runs away. It's a poor kind of equality that reduces the efficiency of the most efficient to the level of the least efficient. No breed of animals could survive such restraint; and no nation, in the economy of nature, would be permitted to perpetuate so foolish a theory.

Theodore Roosevelt spoke on "Citizenship in a Republic" at Paris; on the "World Movement" at Berlin; on "Peace" at Copenhagen; and on "Biological Analogies in History" at Oxford, and in all of them he gave the same advice he gave to congress in his messages as president: "raise children." Roosevelt's hobby is interesting; because it is so different from the theories of Cecil Rhodes, the great Englishman, who thought marriage hampered a man. The world, of course, must have its Cecil Rhodeses; but if Cecil's parents had thought about it the same way he did, we can't help wondering what would have become of Cecil.

TAFT SETS HIS FOOT DOWN.
President Taft has set his foot down. Not long since he said he had no pride of opinion, and any amendment congress saw fit to add to the railroad bill he had prepared, so it carried out the purpose of the original measure, would be satisfactory to him; but Tuesday he sent a special message to congress, urging a clause making the rate provision operative immediately upon the enactment of the law, in order that it might be effective to prevent railroad managers adopting their raised rates and keeping them in force, pending investigation by the interstate commerce commission.

The senate passed the bill and it was proposed that the house should ratify it without delay. Then the Cannon-Aldrich element got in its bit in behalf of the "Interests"—let us pause to explain that the Cannon-Aldrich element is composed of Democrats and Republicans.

Enough of this element of both parties stuck together to send the bill into conference, where it may be changed to suit the theories of those who know best how to work in the darkness of the committee chamber. Then the president issued his ultimatum: It shall be the senate bill or nothing, and the progressive wing of the majority party announced that it will keep congress in session all summer, unless the program is carried out. The senate bill, substantially as published, will be enacted; but it is unfortunate that traitors in high places must always be encountered.

Since the stand-pat candidate for governor was nominated in Iowa and indications are that the state convention will be organized against Cummins and Dolliver, we conclude it must have been a moral victory the insurgents won.

Of course, Diaz may not be the kind of man we admire, and Madrid may be as bad as Zelaya; but how much would this government accomplish in the way of reform by espousing the cause of Estrada or that of a lot of half-breed Mayas Indians, who commit unspeakable atrocities in the prosecution of their "revolution"?

REDUCING THE TAX RATE.
When the property valuation is completed by the commission appointed by the general council and an attempt is made to fix the quadrennial assessment next year on the basis of the commission's figures, a roar will go up from Paducah that will be heard at the Metropolis approach to the Burlington bridge; but a certain class of small property owners, are becoming nervous, who have no reason for apprehension. They have been paying the maximum rate of taxation on a fair valuation of their property, and they will not be raised to any considerable extent.

The raises are going to be felt, from all indications, by landlords of cheap tenement property and owners of property whose values have increased during the last dozen years from $100 a front foot to $500 and $1,000. Yet, they will not be hurt by the increase, if wisdom is shown in the selection of the right men for the general council; for with an increased property assessment it will be possible to effect a gradual reduction of the tax rate, without diminishing the city's revenues, and, while those, whose assessment will be materially increased will not find their taxes appreciably higher, those who are now paying the maximum on a fair valuation, will have their taxes materially reduced.

If there is one class of people, who should be favored above all others in a city, it is the thrifty cottage home owners; the men, who acquire property by strict economy and good habits. They make the town, and the absence of them unmake the town; their presence does more to stimulate and keep active the real estate market and maintain real estate values, than any other element in a community; their character and citizenship, their charity and their family virtues are the best in every community, in which they are numerically strong. A public policy, which encourages the ownership of homes, does more for the upbuilding of a town than any other policy; and any means adopted to relieve them of the burden of taxation, without impairing the efficiency of municipal government, is desirable.

People, who own their homes in a town are permanent residents, personally interested in everything that affects the welfare of the city. Owners of business property, who shift the burden of taxation on these people are injuring themselves and their own property, by reducing this class to a minimum numerically, and compelling them to pay in taxes, what they might be spending in trade.

It is not the sportsy population, but the home owning, home making, home loving people, always able to work at their full capacity as wealth producers, who pay cash for the best market offers, that make a town substantially and permanently prosperous.

Midas affected not to be uneasy. "Just wait until the boys begin to touch me," quoth he, displaying an acquaintance with economic tendencies far in advance of his age.—Puck.

NEW RANK OF ROYALTY

Although all social functions, so far as the court is concerned, will be abandoned for a year, it is likely that many foreigners, especially Americans, will have an opportunity of meeting in one way and another members of British royalty this season. The death of King Edward has, of course, resulted in a drastic rearrangement of the scale of precedent, and this new scale will be interesting for foreigners of social standing. As officially rearranged, the scale is as follows:

His majesty the king.
H. R. H. the Duke of Cornwall and Rothesay.
H. R. H. Prince Albert Frederick George.
H. R. H. Prince Henry William Frederick.
H. R. H. Prince George Edward Alexander.

H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught.
H. R. H. the Duke of Saxe-Cobourg, Duke of Albany.
H. R. H. Prince Johann Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg.
H. R. H. Prince Dietmar Hubertus of Saxe-Cobourg.
H. R. H. the Duke of Cumberland, followed by his sons.
The ladies of the royal family will rank:
H. M. the Queen.
H. M. the Queen-Mother.
H. R. H. Princess Victoria Alexandra Alice Mary (daughter).

H. R. H. the Princess Victoria (sister).
H. M. the Queen of Norway.

TAX CASE

Colored Chauffeur Accused of Violating Speed Ordinance on Kentucky.

The case against Joe Crabtree, a colored chauffeur, for the Dunn taxicab line, charged with running at a greater speed than 8 miles an hour, was continued in police court today until tomorrow morning in order that another witness may be secured. The warrant grew out of a collision at Third street and Kentucky avenue at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, when Crabtree's machine collided with Roy Bishop, colored, who was riding a bicycle. The wheel was wrecked and Bishop went to the police. A warrant was issued charging Crabtree with speeding.

Other cases: Breach of ordinance—Clara Bradshaw, continued until tomorrow. Breach of peace—T. Mack colored, fined $50; Jim Nelson and Henry Dixon, colored, continued till 3 o'clock this afternoon; C. E. Whitman and Laura Whitman, fined $25 each.

Mrs. Curt Roby and children have gone to Texas to reside. Her husband, Curt Roby, left about a month ago to join the navy.

H. M. Kessel, of St. Louis, has purchased the jewelry store of Theodore Schottle and has taken charge of it. Mr. Schottle will leave in a few days for Texas, where he has a large farm.

J. N. Roberts, of the Roberts Box factory, is here visiting his brother, C. C. Roberts, and attending to business in connection with his factory.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ames, of Caruthersville, are visiting friends here.

Bart McGlasson, of Cairo, is visiting his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McGlasson.

George E. Martin, of Mound City, attended the cash drainage meeting here Tuesday.

Miss Stella Wiant, daughter of ex-Policeman William Wiant, died Monday night after a lingering illness with consumption.

Curious Law Case.

A curious law case, that of a man fighting for the ownership of his skeleton, has just been concluded at Stockholm. Twenty years ago Albert Vystrom signed a contract with the Royal Swedish Institute of Anatomy making over his body after death to the institute in return for a sum of money. Since then he has come into possession of a fortune and he was anxious to cancel his contract. The matter was brought before the courts. Not only was the case decided against him but he was even ordered to pay damages to a institute for having extracted two teeth without its authorization, which was held to be, in point of law, a breach of contract.

MISS FANNIE LEVY

DIES AT HOME OF HER SISTER. MRS. FRIEDMAN.

Leaves Four Sisters and One Brother—Burial in New Orleans Tomorrow.

Miss Fannie Levy, formerly of New Orleans, died at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Herman Friedman, 815 Jefferson street. She had been ill about three months, having been removed from Riverside hospital only a short time.

Miss Levy was born in New Orleans and came here six months ago to reside. She had many friends here. She leaves four sisters and one brother: Mrs. Friedman and Mrs. Adolph Weil, of this city; Mrs. Simon Hess and Miss Stella Levy, of New Orleans; and Mr. Maurice Levy, of New York City. The body will be taken to New Orleans at 6:15 o'clock this evening and burial will take place there tomorrow.

STUMP SPEECHES

of Carroll, Republican, and Porter, Democrat, for governor, seems certain. Eight progressives and three stand-patters were nominated for congress.

Following are the congressional candidates:

First District—C. A. Kennedy, stand-pat.

Second District—Charles Glick, progressive.

Third District—C. E. Pickett, progressive.

Fourth District—Gilbert N. Haugen, progressive.

Fifth District—James W. Good, progressive.

Sixth District—N. E. Kendall, progressive.

Seventh District—S. F. Prouty, progressive.

Eighth District—S. M. Townner, stand-pat. (John Darrah, progressive, claims it).

Ninth District—Walter I. Smith, stand-pat.

Tenth District—Frank P. Woods, progressive.

Eleventh District—E. H. Hubbard, progressive.

First District—B. S. Pollard.

Second District—J. A. Dearmand.

Third District—John Dennison (J. C. Murtagh claims it).

Fourth District—D. D. Murphy.

Fifth District—F. C. Hubel.

Sixth District—Daniel W. Hamilton.

Seventh District—Clint L. Price.

Eighth District—F. Q. Stuart.

Ninth District—W. I. Cleveland.

Tenth District—No candidate.

Eleventh District—No candidate.

Almost complete unofficial returns from the Seventh district give Prouty 1,100 over Hull. This reversal is decided as two years ago Hull was nominated by 40 votes.

Smith's majority in the ninth is another surprise. President returns give him 2,000 over Attorney General Byers.

Announcement of the nominations of Carroll and Porter is based on returns from 200 precincts, including the larger cities, out of 2,300 in the state.

President Taft Commended.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 9.—Republicans in state convention adopted a platform today, commending Taft's administration. It makes no direct reference to La Follette's insurgency.

I. C. PICNIC

LOCATION AND DATE ARE TO BE SELECTED.

Blacksmiths and Helpers Are Arranging Agreement on Wage Scale.

Already preliminary plans have been outlined for the annual picnic of the employees of the Illinois Central railroad. The committee held its first meeting yesterday afternoon for a consideration of the outing this year. Nothing definite has been reached, but in the next few weeks it is expected that the plans will be completed. As usual the convenience of the railroad company to furnish the equipment will be followed as far as possible.

It is proposed to hold the picnic August 6, which will be Saturday, and also a day when the railroad will have many extra coaches in Paducah for the excursions for the colored emancipation. Kuttawa and Heath are being considered as the locations for the picnic. This year the committee will endeavor to find a suitable location without going too great a distance, which is tiresome on the packed trains. Last year the picnic was held at Cerulean Springs. The members of the committee are: W. R. Davis, chairman; J. R. Rutter, secretary, and F. A. Milliken, treasurer.

New Agreement.

For the purpose of arranging a new agreement with the railroad, Barney Carey, of the Blacksmiths' union, and Leonard Grimes, of the Helpers' union, left last night for Chicago. The conference will last for several days. The two officers will represent the local blacksmiths and blacksmith helpers.

W. B. Weeks, of Memphis, superintendent of southern telegraph lines, passed through the city this morning en route to Princeton.

T. M. Baughan, of the Chicago Great Western railroad, passed through Paducah this morning en route from Louisville to St. Louis.

Lloyd Grimes, traveling engineer of the Tennessee division, was in the city today on business.

The wrecker did not return yesterday as the crew was called to Nortonville to pick up some freight cars that were derailed.

Frank Deen, a car checker, was ill today at his home, 219 North Third street.

Jesse Isaman, a boilermaker helper, has returned from Hopkinsville.

Henry Urquhart, the colored brake shoe inventor, left last night for Canada, where he will make demonstrations of his patent. Recently Urquhart made his third improvement on his brake shoe by improving the structure and reinforcing it. With the improvement competent railroad men say there is no excuse why it should not come into general use.

News of Theatres

The Kentucky.

On account of a contract made with the superintendent of the public schools, early in the spring, vaudeville at the Kentucky theater will give way Thursday and Friday nights June 9 and 19, to the annual commencement exercises of the white and colored high schools.

As all the vaudeville performers are under contract at other cities, it was not possible to book a show for Saturday only and so a feature program of special moving pictures and songs will be given, continuously from 2:30 to 10:30 p. m. at five cents admission. Starting with the Monday matinee, the regular vaudeville programs will be resumed with a program that promises to be one of the best shows that has, as yet, been seen at the Kentucky this season. Watch The Sun for announcements.

Notice of Dissolution.

Notice is hereby given that the St. John's Roman Catholic Parochial School Association, a benevolent corporation, has been dissolved as provided by law.

Many Bills Killed.

Commenting on the alleged corruption fund, the publication says: "Everyone who was in Springfield at the time and who was at all on the inside of what was going on has a pretty clear idea as to whence came the money that went into the jackpot and whether it went at the close of the session.

"Also it would take no Sherlock Holmes to deduce who it was that handled and divided this money, although to prove it would be more difficult.

"Twelve hundred and sixty-eight bills were introduced during the forty-sixth general assembly. The house contributed 740 of this number and the senate 528.

"Two hundred and sixty bills, more or less mutilated by amendments, passed both branches of the legislature, while 1,008 were asphyxiated in committee, butchered on the floor or murdered in joint session.

"Of the 260 bills passing both branches, 40 were vetoed by the governor."

Publisher Tansey was asked as to his sources of information.

"Those cannot be divulged at this time," he said, "but they are reliable, or we would not have published what we have."

Probe Goes Merrily On.

Springfield, Ill., June 9.—In addition to finding evidence indicating that the fund collected to kill the fish bill became a part of the general "jack-pot" which was distributed among the "bathroom boys," State Attorney Burke was informed by Charles Cole, a fish dealer of Beardstown, who appeared before the grand jury this afternoon, that he and other fishermen were given to understand that it would take $2,500 to kill the bill affecting their business.

Mr. Burke says he received definite information also today to the effect that a meeting of fishermen in Beardstown during the session of the legislature and attended by Representative A. M. Foster, chairman of the house fish and game committee, Mr. Foster declared that he could either kill the bill or secure its passage.

Cole also gave the prosecutor the names of two prominent men whose activity in having a fund collected from the fishermen indicate to Mr. Burke a purpose to get the money for the general "jack-pot."

More Witnesses Sought.
The only other witness was Cashier T. K. Condit, of the First National bank of Beardstown, who produced records and gave the prosecutor all information he could relate to the $1,275 telegraphed to his

People, who own their homes in a town are permanent residents, personally interested in everything that affects the welfare of the city. Owners of business property, who shift the burden of taxation on these people are injuring themselves and their own property, by reducing this class to a minimum numerically, and compelling them to pay in taxes, what they might be spending in trade.

It is not the sports population, but the home owning, home making, home loving people, always able to work at their full capacity as wealth producers, who pay cash for the best the market affords, that make a town substantially and permanently prosperous.

NEW RANK OF ROYALTY

Although all social functions, so far as the court is concerned, will be abandoned for a year, it is likely that many foreigners, especially Americans, will have an opportunity of meeting in one way and another members of British royalty this season. The death of King Edward has, of course, resulted in a drastic rearrangement of the scale of precedent, and this new scale will be interesting for foreigners of social standing. As officially rearranged, the scale is as follows:

His majesty the king.
H. R. H. the Duke of Cornwall and Rothesay.
H. R. H. Prince Albert Frederick George.
H. R. H. Prince Henry William Frederick.
H. R. H. Prince George Edward Alexander.

Curious Law Case.

A curious law case, that of a man fighting for the ownership of his skeleton, has just been concluded at Stockholm. Twenty years ago Albert Vystrom signed a contract with the Royal Swedish Institute of Anatomy making over his body after death to the institute in return for a sum of money. Since then he has come into possession of a fortune and he was anxious to cancel his contract. The matter was brought before the courts. Not only was the case decided against him but he was even ordered to pay damage to the institute for having extracted two teeth without its authorization, which was held to be, in point of law, a breach of contract.

of Carroll, Republican, and Porter, Democrat, for governor, seems certain. Eight progressives and three stand-patters were nominated for congress.

Third District—C. E. Pickett, progressive.

Fourth District—Gilbert N. Haugen, progressive.

Almost complete unofficial returns from the Seventh district give Prouty 1,100 over Hull. This reversal is decided as two years ago Hull was nominated by 40 votes.

Smith's majority in the ninth is another surprise. President returns give him 2,000 over Attorney General Byers.

Announcement of the nominations of Carroll and Porter is based on returns from 200 precincts, including the larger cities, out of 2,300 in the state.

I. C. PICNIC

LOCATION AND DATE ARE TO BE SELECTED.

Blacksmiths and Helpers Are Arranging Agreement on Wage Scale.

Already preliminary plans have been outlined for the annual picnic of the employees of the Illinois Central railroad. The committee held its first meeting yesterday afternoon for a consideration of the outing this year. Nothing definite has been reached, but in the next few weeks it is expected that the plans will be completed. As usual the convenience of the railroad company to furnish the equipment will be followed as far as possible.

It is proposed to hold the picnic August 6, which will be Saturday, and also a day when the railroad will have many extra coaches in Paducah for the excursion for the colored emancipation. Kottawa and Heath are being considered as the locations for the picnic. This year the committee will endeavor to find a suitable location without going too great a distance, which is tiresome on the packed trains. Last year the picnic was held at Cerulean Springs. The members of the committee are: W. R. Davis, chairman; J. R. Rutter, secretary, and F. A. Milliken, treasurer.

New Agreement.

For the purpose of arranging a new agreement with the railroad, Barney Carey, of the Blacksmiths' union, and Leonard Grimes, of the Helpers' union, left last night for Chicago. The conference will last for several days. The two officers will represent the local blacksmiths and blacksmith helpers.

W. B. Weeks, of Memphis, superintendent of southern telegraph lines, passed through the city this morning en route to Princeton.

T. M. Baughan, of the Chicago Great Western railroad, passed through Paducah this morning en route from Louisville to St. Louis.

Lloyd Grimes, traveling engineer of the Tennessee division, was in the city today on business.

The wrecker did not return yesterday as the crew was called to Nortonville to pick up some freight cars that were derailed.

Frank Deen, a car checker, was ill today at his home, 219 North Sixth street.

Jesse Iseman, a boilermaker helper, has returned from Hopkinsville.

Henry Urquhart, the colored brake shoe inventor, left last night for Canada, where he will make demonstrations of his patent. Recently Urquhart made his third improvement on his brake shoe by improving the structure and reinforcing it. With the improvement competent railroad men say there is no excuse why it should not come into general use.

News of Theatres

The Kentucky.

On account of a contract made with the superintendent of the public schools, early in the spring, vaudeville at the Kentucky theater will give way Thursday and Friday nights June 9 and 19, to the annual commencement exercises of the white and colored high schools.

Starting with the Monday matinee, the regular vaudeville programs will be resumed with a program that promises to be one of the best shows that has, as yet, been seen at the Kentucky this season. Many Bills Killed.

Commenting on the alleged corruption fund, the publication says: "Everyone who was in Springfield at the time and who was at all on the inside of what was going on has a pretty clear idea as to whence came the money that went into the jackpot and whether it went at the close of the session.

"Also it would take no Sherlock Holmes to deduce who it was that handled and divided this money, although to prove it would be more difficult.

"Twelve hundred and sixty-eight bills were introduced during the forty-sixth general assembly. The house contributed 740 of this number and the senate 528.

"Two hundred and sixty bills, more or less mutilated by amendments, passed both branches of the legislature, while 1,008 were asphyxiated in committee, butchered on the floor or murdered in joint session.

"Of the 260 bills passing both branches, 40 were vetoed by the governor."

Publisher Tansey was asked as to his sources of information.

"Those cannot be divulged at this time," he said, "but they are reliable, or we would not have published what we have."

Probe Goes Merrily On.

Springfield, Ill., June 9.—In addition to finding evidence indicating that the fund collected to kill the fish bill became a part of the general "jack-pot" which was distributed among the "bathroom boys," State's Attorney Burke was informed by Charles Cole, a fish dealer of Beardstown, who appeared before the grand jury this afternoon, that he and other fishermen were given to understand that it would take $2,500 to kill the bill affecting their business.

Mr. Burke says he received definite information also today to the effect that a meeting of fishermen in Beardstown during the session of the legislature and attended by Representative A. M. Foster, chairman of the house fish and game committee. Mr. Foster declared that he could either kill the bill or secure its passage.

Cole also gave the prosecutor the names of two prominent men whose activity in having a fund collected from the fishermen indicate to Mr. Burke a purpose to get the money for the general "jack-pot."

More Witnesses Sought.
The only other witness was Cashier T. K. Condit, of the First National bank of Beardstown, who produced records and gave the prosecutor all information he could relative to the $1,275 telegraphed to his

ONE WAY TO WIN ELECTION.

Lock Up Your Rival Candidates, as in Mexico.

Monterey, Mexico June 9.—There is little if any abatement in the political excitement here. Late Monday night Francisco I. Madero, the independent candidate for president of the republic, who is opposed to the re-election of Diaz as president and Corral as vice president, was arrested and taken to the city lockup and detained there. His wife, who was with him at the time of the arrest, would not leave him, and accompanied him to the police lockup. It is reported today that he has been allowed his liberty, but that the case has not been disposed of by the authorities, but that the case is pending against many other persons.

There is also a rumor on the streets that Attorney Roque Estrada has been arrested and placed in prison. What the outcome of the action of the authorities will be is a question that remains to be determined.

LONGWORTH WONT RUN FOR GOVERNOR OF OHIO.

Cincinnati, June 9.—Congressman Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of Theodore Roosevelt, in a letter made public today to W. C. In part he said:

"I prefer to remain in congress, and under no circumstances would I consent to go into the gubernatorial race. You will kindly deny to my friends that I am in the race in any way."

In Honor of Guests.
In honor of her house-guests, Mrs. R. M. Smith and Mrs. LaFrances McCubbin, of Kansas City, Mrs. George Katterjohn gave a very pretty card party last night. The house was a beautiful bower of roses, sweet peas, carnations and ferns, which furnished a background for the appropriately attired guests.

A pretty feature in the decorations was the artistic French baskets filled with flowers that were suspended from the grill work in the wide arch between the library and the dining-room. The table was veiled in lace over turquoise blue, in the center of which was a big bowl of white sweet peas. From the grill work in the arch between the library and reception hall, also hung pretty baskets of sweet peas, draperies of tulle and vines.

An elaborate menu was served and the delicate shades, pink and lavender were carried out in the ice, cakes and mints. There were four tables of players and euchre was played. The ladies' prize, a handsome hand-painted vase, was won by Mrs. George Jacobs, and the gentlemen's prize, a Venetian glass ink stand, was won by Mr. Fred Dount. The lone-hand prize, a beautiful hand-painted plate, was captured by Mr. George Jacobs. The guests of honor were presented with beautiful hand-painted salad bowls.

The guests were: Mrs. R. M. Smith, Mrs. La Frances McCubbin, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dount, Mr. and Mrs. John Rock, Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harnesling, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gardner, Mr. F. D. Dount.

Versailles, Ky.—"I could not write," says Mrs. Elisha Green, of this place, "all the different pains I had, when I first tried Cardui. I could scarcely walk. Now I am able to run the machine and do my work, and my neighbors tell me the medicine must be good, for I look so much better. Cardui has been a great help."

Cardui is a specific, pain-relieving, tonic remedy for women. You can only judge of what Cardui will do for you, by what it has done for others.

For more than 50 years, it has been found to relieve pain and distress, and to strengthen weak women. Its value has been fully demonstrated.

Over a million suffering women have successfully used it. Being composed of purely vegetable and harmless ingredients, which have a special curative and strengthening action, Cardui goes right to the seat of your trouble, and can do you nothing but good.

Cardui is the medicine you need. Your druggist sells it. Try it.

The young ladies passed around the table and found their places by means of the place cards, pretty little Japanese fans, on each of which was written a verse wishing happiness to the bride. ONE WAY TO WIN ELECTION.

Lock Up Your Rival Candidates, as in Mexico.

Monterey, Mexico, June 9.—There is little if any abatement in the political excitement here. Late Monday night Francisco I. Madero, the independent candidate for president of the republic, who is opposed to the re-election of Diaz as president and Carral as vice president, was arrested and taken to the city lockup and detained there. His wife, who was with him at the time of the arrest, would not leave him, and accompanied him to the police lockup. It is reported today that he has been allowed his liberty, but that the case has not been disposed of by the authorities, but that the case is pending against many other persons.

There is also a rumor on the streets that Attorney Roque Estrada has been arrested and placed in prison. What the outcome of the action of the authorities will be is a question that remains to be determined.

In part he said:

"I prefer to remain in congress, and under no circumstances would I consent to go into the gubernatorial race. You will kindly deny to my friends that I am in the race in any way."

CALLS COOK FAKER

THEY ACCEPTED HIM BECAUSE HE WAS AMERICAN.

Dr. Mygind's English Wife Scoffer From Beginning—Thinks Joke Is on Americans, Too.

St. Louis, June 9.—"There is no doubt in my mind but that Dr. Fredrick A. Cook, the reputed discoverer of the North Pole, is thoroughly ashamed of himself, after having treated your great country and my generous country so shamefully," said Dr. Holger Mygind, professor of otology in the University of Copenhagen, Denmark, who is among the distinguished scientists in attendance on the American Medical association. He stopped last night at Hotel Jefferson.

Prof. Mygind explained Dr. Cook's going into retirement by saying that to him it was a clear case of troubled conscience and fear to face the public he had attempted to hoax. He said he believed Dr. Cook's mind had become unbalanced by the exposure, and this accounted for his queer actions.

With a kindly smile beaming in his blue eyes, as he gazed on an artistic miniature of his English wife, he continued:

As American Had Prestige.

"That lady whose picture you see was the only one I know in all Denmark who from the very first refused to credit Dr. Cook's story of his discovery. She actually declined to accept an invitation to the Cook banquet in Copenhagen, when all people were wild with joy at the honor they thought Cook was paying them by visiting us first."

"But, really, my countrymen would not have so rapturously credited Dr. Cook had he not been an American, and had not Capt. Sverdrup, of Nansen expedition fame, vouched for him."

Fifteen years ago Dr. Mygind was decorated by King Christian IX. as a knight of Dannebrog, an order dating from the thirteenth century. He was graduated from the University of Copenhagen in 1880. For six years he was a pupil and assistant of the great Wilhelm Meyer, discoverer and first operator for adenoids. He will deliver a memorial address on Wilhelm Meyer this afternoon at Sodality hall before the otolaryngology section. His principal paper will be delivered tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, when at Sodality hall he will discuss "The Operative Treatment of Meningitis."

TITLES OF THE ENGLISH KINGS

SOME QUAIN AND CURIOUS SIDELIGHTS ON HISTORY.

From Plain and Simple "King of the English" to Present Florid String of Appellations.

INTERESTING ROYAL HISTORY.

London, June 9.—It is not often that the general public, though tolerably familiar with the abbreviated versions inscribed on the coins it uses, has the opportunity of seeing the titles appertaining to the British crown set out fully in black and white as they are revealed in the proclamation signed on Saturday at St. James' palace by the first privy council of King George V. says the London Morning Post. It is, therefore, not an unsuitable moment to consider how, and from what beginnings, and in what order the crown, in the course of centuries, has gathered about itself these titles. Queen Victoria's title on her accession in 1837 was "Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith," and the legend around, say an 1858 shilling, runs "Victoria Dei Gratia Britanniarum Rex; P. D." whereas King George is proclaimed as "King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions Beyond the Seas, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India," and his coins, when struck, will bear the words, or abbreviations, "Georgius V. D. G. Britt. Omn: Rex P. D. Ind. Imp." Two fresh titles, then, have been added since 1837—both, in fact, within the last 34 years.

Of this mass of titles the nucleus is, of course, that the "King of England," or, in its original form, "King of the English." Legend attributes this appellation to Ebert, the famous King of Wessex, who at the opening of the ninth century practically united Britain under himself as single ruler. Not, however, to Ebert, nor even to Alfred the Great, belongs the honor of having been the first "King of the English," but to Alfred's grandson, Athelstan, a warlike and gorgeous sovereign, who subdued the Danes of Northern England and such chieftains as still maintained an independent existence in the remote parts of the island. Of the outlying countries, disrespectfully spoken of today in the heat of controversy as "the Celtic fringe," Wales was the first to be incorporated with England under one crown. Edward I. annexed Wales in 1284, declaring by the Statutum Wallie that the country and its inhabitants had been brought in proprietas nostrae dominion. It was, as everyone knows, the birth of the luckless Edward II. in Caernarvon Castle that led to the bestowal of the famous title "Prince of Wales" upon the heirs to the English throne.

The Anglo-Saxon kings had vague pretensions to the lordship of Ireland, which they had no power whatever to translate into a semblance of actual domination. Stubbs says that Edgar apparently acted as patron of the Osmen—Danish settlers who had colonized a strip of the eastern coast—and quotes authorities to show that coins of Ethelred and Canute were struck at Dublin. Henry II.'s expedition in 1171, however, was the first definite attempt to exact from the Irish chieftains recognition of the English sovereign's lordship. Prince John was made by his father lord of the island. It was intended that he should be crowned king, and the crown of gold was actually sent to him by the pope, but the coronation never took place. Had John been crowned king Ireland would have been included with England in the royal title at John's accession to the English throne in 1199, but as it happened the idea abandoned by Henry II. was not revived until more than three centuries later, Henry VIII. assumed in 1541 the title of King of Ireland.

England and Scotland were brought under one ruler by the accession of James I. to the English throne in 1603, and early in his reign the well-known post nat case, known also as "Calvin's case," decided that Scotsmen born after his accession were English citizens, and vice versa. At the restoration the hereditary right of Charles II. to the Scottish throne was declared by the parliament at Edinburgh, and 28 years later, when James II. was expelled, the Scottish crown was as a matter of course offered to William and Mary. Still, the complete union of the crowns did not take place till the passage in 1707 of the act of union, which declared England and Scotland to be one kingdom, and Anne to be the first sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Of the three titles of the crown, as yet unaccounted for one is of ancient and the other two of quite modern origin. The title of Fidei Defensor was conferred upon Henry VIII. in 1521 by Pope Leo X. on the receipt of a book bound in cloth of gold, written by the zealous young king in denunciation of the heresies of Luther. The interchange of courtesies makes strange reading in the light of Henry's subsequent acts, but Fidei Defensor, though a deadly enemy of the pope, he remained to his last day, save when dire necessity drove him to coquet with the Lutheran princes, whom he hated. Of the two remaining titles that of "Emperor of India" dates from New Year's Day, 1877, when Queen Victoria assumed the title of empress. This step was the natural corollary of the beneficent change made 19 years earlier when the crown, which had for years virtually left the control of affairs in India in the hands of the subordinate but enormously powerful East India company, which lived in practice as well as in theory. The title "King of the British Dominions Beyond the Seas" was, as is generally known, assumed by the late king as a tribute to the important position held in the empire by the sister nations across the seas.

A point of interest, though not directly connected with the title of the crown, is raised by a sentence in the privy council's proclamation: "We, therefore, the lords, spiritual and temporal of this realm, being here assisted with those of his late majesty's privy council * * * This body—the lords, spiritual and temporal—'assisted with' the privy council—is unique and has no existence except on the occasion of a new sovereign being proclaimed. Sir William Anson, in his 'Law and Custom of the Constitution,' calls attention to the phrase, and interprets it as being a survival of the ancient tradition by which the Witenagemot, or 'assembly of the wise,' met to elect the Anglo-Saxon kings.

The Conservation of Nature's Resources

Applies as well to our physical state as to material things. C. J. Budlong, Washington, R. I., realized his condition, and took warning before it was too late. He says: "I suffered severely from kidney trouble, the disease being hereditary in our family. I have taken four bottles of Poley's Kidney Remedy, and now consider myself thoroughly cured. This should be a warning to all not to neglect taking Poley's Kidney Remedy until it is too late."—Gilbert's Drug Store.

Brooklyn's New Botanical Garden.

A Brooklyn botanical garden is now being established by the city of Greater New York in co-operation with the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences. Between twenty-five and thirty acres of land south of the museum building of the institute in Prospect Park by Flatbush avenue, have been set apart for the purposes of the garden and are now being surveyed and graded. A laboratory building for purposes of investigation and instruction, together with a range of experimental and public greenhouses, will be constructed during the coming summer and autumn. For this purpose the city of New York has appropriated $100,000.

In addition to this friends of the garden in Brooklyn have subscribed $50,000 as an endowment, the income of which is to be used for the purchase of equipment. It is intended to make the new garden not only a center of research, but also to give instruction to both elementary and advanced classes in botany, and co-operate in every feasible manner with the botanical work of the public and private schools of the borough of Brooklyn. Dr. C. Stuart Gager, professor of botany in the University of Missouri, has been appointed director of the garden and will enter on his duties the first part of July. A scientific staff will be gradually assembled as soon as the buildings are ready for occupancy.—Science.

THOUGHT DEAD; WALKED IN.

Woman Alive On Whose Life Even Insurance Had Been Paid.

New York, June 8.—Mary McGonigle, who was supposed to have been killed by a Sixth avenue car and buried in Calvary cemetery several weeks ago, surprised her sister, Mrs. John Mullaney, by dropping in for a sisterly visit at her home a few days ago, and Mrs. Mullaney has not recovered yet. She tried to scream and lost her voice. She tried to run and found that her blood had frozen in her veins. She was paralyzed. "What ails you?" asked the supposed spectre. "Is Mullaney dead that you have the tweed of a widow upon you?"

"No, it's you that is dead," shrieked Mrs. Mullaney.

"I'm not," said Mrs. McGonigle. "You're buried," said the sister.

"Here, what's all this nonsense?" demanded the supposed ghost, but Mrs. Mullaney had gone into a swoon.

Mary McGonigle went downstairs for aid. The woman on the floor below cried out and fell on her knees.

"The house is a lunatic asylum," commented Mrs. McGonigle.

When the relatives and friends had finished congratulating Mrs. McGonigle on being alive, the insurance company which had paid the policy on her life was notified of the mistake and the amount returned. The railroad company, which had paid the funeral expenses, was also notified, but was unable to collect from the undertaker. The identity of the woman who was buried is still a mystery.

"It was a fine funeral I had, even though I wasn't there," said Mrs. McGonigle today.

S.S.S. OLDEST & BEST S.S.S. BLOOD PURIFIER

Time is the supreme test of all things, and the very best recommendation of S. S. S. is that it has stood a long test and is now often used, and has the confidence of a greater number of people than any other blood medicine. The blood is the vital force of life; the health-preserving element and motive power of the system. Every organ, nerve, muscle, tissue and sinew of the body is dependent directly on the blood for nourishment and strength. As it circulates through the system, pure and rich, it furnishes to these different members the healthful properties needed to sustain and enable them to perform their various duties. So long as the blood remains free from infection we are apt to be healthy, but any impurity, humor or poison in the circulation affects some portion of the general health.

Bad blood may come from various causes, such as sluggish condition of the system, imperfect bowel and kidney action, indigestion, etc., or the trouble may be inherited, but whatever the source the blood must be purified before the body can be healthy. Pustular eruptions, pimples, rashes, and the various skin affections show that the blood is in a feverish condition as the result of some humor, or the presence of an irritating, fiery acid.

Rheumatism comes from an excess of uric acid in the circulation, while Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, and Contagious Blood Poison, are all deep-seated blood disorders.

S. S. S. is a natural blood purifier and tonic. It is made entirely of the juices and extracts of roots, herbs and barks of recognized curative ability, and being free from all harmful minerals is an absolutely safe medicine for young or old. S. S. S. goes into the circulation and removes every trace of impurity, humor or poison. It freshens and enriches the blood and cures promptly and permanently Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores, and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, and all other blood disorders. S. S. S. is the most reliable medicine for those whose blood has become weak and who are suffering from Anemia, Malaria or other debilitating trouble. Book on the blood free. Look at the Companies Behind Your Fire Insurance

A few weeks ago, in a very nearby town, one of the most prominent merchants lost his entire stock of goods by fire. He was fully insured, he thought.

When time for settlement came however, he found the one company in which he had the biggest insurance, was insolvent, BROKE, and the loss wiped the merchant out of business.

Abandoned Farms To Be Restored by Experts Calls For General Discussion.

Buffalo, June 9.—Possibly there is nothing more interesting to the farmer, just now, than the assertion that the abandoned farms in central and Western New York are to be taken in hand by expert agriculturists and restored to their old time fertility. They have read much recently that the president of the New York Central railroad accounts for the high prices by saying that many agriculturists have abandoned the farm and gone to the city. Still another declaration, freely made, is that farmers taking advantage of the situation are charging extortionate prices and getting unduly rich. There is another side to all this—the farmer's side, and here it is from his viewpoint presented by one of wide experience. He is willing to admit there are fewer failures among farmers than in any other class of business men. More, he is quite familiar with the farms of Erie, Niagara, Orleans, Genesee and Monroe counties. Incidentally he knows a little bit about the west and something about the cattle industry.

Profits Are Not Large.

While farming is now on a paying basis in Western New York, the profit is not so great as many think. The farmers in Niagara, Orleans, Genesee and Monroe counties owe the greater share of their present prosperity to the wisdom of their fathers. The magnificent orchards are largely due to those who lived a half century ago, who found out the soils best adapted to fruit and the variety best adaptable to the climate. Yet there have been dark days for many farmers. The bonded indebtedness of the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg railroad had to be paid, even though the court of appeals of the state decided the bonds were illegal—for the case was taken to the federal courts, and the decision of the highest court of the Empire state set aside. Many farmers went to Tonawanda and worked in the lumber yards in order to save their homes and pay the debt of high finance.

Those who tell about abandoned farms in Western New York are ignorant of the high standing of the Empire state in agriculture. At least one-third is not fit for cultivation. The amount of tillable land in this state is not large—but so large as in many others. Perhaps it will cause some of those who claim agriculture is in a backward state great surprise to learn that the vineyards of New York are second—a good second at that—to those of California. This state is not only the greatest producer of apples, but the quality is highest. The potato crop of this state of "abandoned farms" is greater than in any in the United States. In many grains it ranks first.

Few Abandoned Farms.

There are few abandoned farms anywhere in Western New York. Those which are classed as abandoned are real estate investments held by heirs of the pioneers waiting for Just now there are many buyers of farms in Niagara county, paying as high as $150 an acre. These buyers are coming from the city and some of them have no idea of farming. Some will succeed, but many will fail. For this reason many farmers are a bit nervous. The good farm is like the good residence in the city—a matter in a great degree of reputation. If a good farm runs down it injures adjoining property.

How much is land worth for farming purposes? In 1906 in Niagara county $60 was about the limit. It is now $150 and still rising. It is well to remember that to make a farm of 100 acres pay takes pluck, energy and good management. More, even in Niagara county the farmer must submit to certain frontier hardships—not in his dwelling, for many houses have furnaces and bathrooms; not in the severity of the work, for labor-saving machinery is abundant, but in selling his products. He cannot depend on the railroad for shipment, nor can he trust the commission man if he could, and he therefore has to sell where the supply is less than the demand.

Long Drives to Market.

In Elk street market, in Buffalo, almost any day from July to December can be found men who drive 40 miles to sell their produce. Sometimes this load is sold for $100, oftener for less, say $40. It takes two days to make the trip. Usually he sells his load for at least $10 more than he could have done at home. If he makes 30 trips a year his produce will sell for about $2,000. The railroad is of but little help to the Niagara county farmer.

Intelligent farm help is not plentiful, and the best farmer always gets the best help. It takes three years to make a good farm hand, or losses to his employer will result. Good farm labor is not dear at $35 a month and found. Yet if the ignorant city laborer is to be turned over to the farm he is dear at $10. The country lad soon adapts himself to city ways, but the man of the city is stupid when placed on a farm.

Farms Are Not Worn Out.

That farms in these counties have not been worn out is evident, for they are more productive than they were 30 years ago. Western New York farmers did not stop growing wheat until wheat was selling for 60 and 70 cents. Even at a dollar a bushel the farmer pays as much for flour as the city man. The miller no longer grinds his wheat and takes toll, but buys wheat and sells flour. As to the yield of wheat, 20, 30, 40 and in rare instances 50 bushels to the acre are reported.

The fruit crop is the money maker. Yet it has not the profit that many believe. Take an orchard of 20 acres and suppose it produces 2,000 barrels—a good crop—and allow a fair price, $2 a barrel. When the $4,000 is received the farmer will prepare at his leisure a statement similar to this:

Shishable fruit has been five days on the way for a distance of less than 40 miles. Why increase the yield where rapid transportation is an impossibility?

The city man will find just as much corruption in country politics as exists in his municipality. However, this has nothing to do with farm management or abandoned farms.

SCHOOLBOY "HOWLERS."

The schoolboy "howler" is always popular. The following selections from a large number which were sent in for a prize competition arranged by the university correspondent are excellent examples of the mistakes which pupils perpetrate:

JOHN H. ROE

PASSES AWAY AT HIS INDIANA HOME.

Former Insurance Man Reaches Ripe Old Age of 95 Years.

Information has reached the city of the recent death at Flora, Ind., of John H. Roe, a former well known citizen of Paducah. Mr. Roe died at the venerable age of 95 years, after a most successful life. He was a bachelor and left only an aged mother. The two were making their home together.

The older citizens will recall the residence here for many years in the sixties and seventies of Mr. Roe, and the fact that he was for years one of the leading men of the place. He was engaged for many years in the life insurance business and his career as a policy seller and writer was a phenomenal one. He was for 25 years, at least, connected with the Equitable Life and had the reputation of selling to a Paducah friend the first lifetime policy that company ever placed in the states when the policy was first put into force. He also had a most unique contract with the company, as his friends knew, and from a most insignificant percentage he lived to see his "annuity" as they were first called, grow to a yearly small fortune. Close friends know that once in life, when he came to retire from active business, as he did in about 1905, the Equitable offered Mr. Roe a very handsome sum—something like a quarter of a million—for a quit claim, but this he declined, though the contract was only a life one. Mr. Roe left a handsome fortune in cash and property, a part of the latter being one of the largest and most valuable stock farms in Indiana. This stock farm he established years before he left the insurance business and when he came to take the last days of his life easy he repaired to it.

Remembered most favorably by older citizens the death of Mr. Roe, even at the ripe age he reached, will be learned with regret by them.

TWO FUNCTIONS FOR ROOSEVELT

RECEPTION IN AFTERNOON AND A FAREWELL DINNER.

Were Quiet Affairs Because All Are in Mourning in London.

HIS LAST DAY IN COUNTRY

London, June 9.—Dorchester house, the residence of Whiteley Reid, American ambassador, was the scene of two functions in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt, a reception in the afternoon to the members of the Pilgrims and American societies, and a farewell dinner at night. Both were quiet affairs, on account of the court being in mourning, and also Mr. and Mrs. Reid in mourning for the late Ogden Mills.

Several hundred attended the dinner, including the most prominent members of the American colony, Archbishop of Canterbury, Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, Duke of Portland, Lord Curzon, of Kedleston, Right Rev. Charles Henry Brent, American Bishop of the Episcopal church in the Philippine Islands and Lord Alverstone.

At a luncheon at Colonel Arthur H. Lee's, Roosevelt met the Earl of Selbourne, high commissioner of South Africa and governor of the Transvaal; and David Lloyd-George, chancellor of exchequer. Others present were Sir Horace Blunkett, department of agriculture in Ireland; Sir Alfred Pease and W. W. Jacobs, the writer, invited on Roosevelt's special request.

Roosevelt will spend his last day in England in the country. Hundreds of letters commenting on his Guild Hall speech are pouring in. A great majority are laudatory, but some are abusive.

A newspaper clipping reached the former president referring to the political importance attached to the dinner which Robert Collier will give to Roosevelt on his return. Roosevelt called attention to the fact that this arrangement was made when he lunched with Collier before starting for Africa, and said there is no political significance to it.

Will Sail Tomorrow.

New York, June 9.—More than 700 cabin passengers, including many notables, will embark on the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria with Roosevelt and family on June 10. Cable advices today gave the plans for Roosevelt's departure. He will walk from New Forest to Southampton station, where he will board a special train which will convey him from London. At Southampton a special tender will convey the party to the steamship anchored in Solent.

FORMER PADUCAH TEACHER PROMOTED AT NEWPORT.

Prof. W. A. Evans, formerly in charge of the science department of the High school, has been elected principal of the Newport High school, where he was elected science teacher last year. His numerous friends in Paducah are well pleased with his deserved promotion. He is a graduate of Deenison university, and came to Paducah from the Hopkinsville High school. While in the city he directed the athletics of the High school, and produced winning teams.

HIGH LIVING

Washington, June 9.—"The prices of high living are not new," says Congressman E. T. Hamilton, who hails from Michigan.

"In the reign of Edward III they passed the statute of laborers, which undertook to regulate wages and prices of food.

"In the same reign they undertook to define by law what men should eat and wear.

"In the same reign they passed laws against engrossing, forestalling, regrating, and badgering, at which buying and selling at wholesale and holding for a rise was made a crime, and they were repealed in the reign of George III, because they discouraged growth and enhanced prices.

"In the reign of Edward IV they tried to define by law the length and breadth of cloth to be sold.

"In the reign of Edward VI they passed laws to punish 'vintners' who conspired to sell victuals too high, and to punish laborers who had 'confederated in respect to their work.'

"In the reign of Elizabeth they tried to fix by law 'wages according to the plenty, scarcity, or necessity in respect to the time.'

"In 1777 the Continental congress recommended that the several states appoint commissioners 'to regulate and ascertain the price of labor, manufactures, internal produce, and commodities imported from foreign parts.' * * * also to regulate the charges of innkeepers, and several of the states passed such laws and then repealed them, because, as the governor of Rhode Island declared, they resulted in an almost entire stopping of vending the necessities of life."

FIREMEN HURT

RUSSELL HUGHES CUT ARTERY IN HIS ARM.

Fire Results From Lamp Explosion at Home of Kenny Tilley.

Fire resulting from the explosion of an oil lamp caused a small loss early this morning at the residence of Kenny Tilley, 1229 Trumble street. The blaze from the burning oil caught in the walls of the frame house, but the firemen arrived quickly after the alarm was received and extinguished the fire before it gained a good start. The loss is estimated at about $25.

The residence is a double tenement, and the fire started in a back room, where a lighted lamp had been left all night. The explosion was heard, and the alarm given. The No. 3 hose company reached the house in a few minutes, and with the chemical engine extinguished the blaze before it gained headway. The No. 4 truck company also answered the alarm, but the fire was out before the long run was completed. Fireman Russell Hughes cut an artery in his left wrist while fighting the fire.

COUNTY TEACHERS WILL BE ELECTED

LAST SATURDAY IN JUNE IS THE DAY SET.

School Book Commission Will Meet at the Court House Next Week.

EXAMINATIONS OF TEACHERS.

County school teachers will be elected on the last Saturday in June which is June 25. Each division board will elect all of the teachers in its division, and in case of any vacancies the teachers will be elected on the last Saturdays in July and August. The meeting places of the division board will be announced later, but will be held in each district.

Next week the county school book commission will meet for the purpose of adopting the text books that are to be used in the county schools. The commission is composed of L. W. Feezor, county school superintendent, who is chairman of the committee, the county board of examiners, Prof. J. S. Ragsdale, principal of the county High school, and one trustee from the county school board.

The county school board will be in session next Monday, and at the meeting the trustees will select one member to act with the commission. It is probable that the commission will adopt the text books next Monday, although the date has not been set definitely.

June 17 and 18 there will be an examination for the county and state teachers certificates for white teachers. The examinations will be held at the court house, and a number of applicants are expected to take the examination.

Superintendent L. W. Feezor is busy arranging the program for the county teachers' institute which will be held August 8-12 this year at the court house. It will be ready for publication in a short time.

A civil service examination will be held on Friday, June 24, 1910, at the office of the Lighthouse Inspector Fourteenth district, Cincinnati, O., for the following named positions on the tender Golden Rod: Master, mate pilot, engineer, assistant engineer and carpenter. Work was commenced at Howard's shipyards yesterday on the two steel ferryboats for the Wiggins Ferry company of St. Louis. The two boats will be 170 feet long and 48 feet wide. They are to be duplicates of the Andrew Christy and will be equipped with compound engines and will be up to date in every respect.

The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company of Pittsburgh, is to build 20 steel barges for the handling of coal on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers. They will have water-tight compartments and are expected to float with a load of coal, even if one or more of the compartments should be punctured by obstructions in the river. If the barges prove satisfactory the company will build additional ones every year until it has a full complement. The company has a contract to furnish 500 barges of coal to the St. Louis LaCade Gas company this year.

A Pittsburgh special June 6 says: "Word was received this morning of the death of William E. Stoops at the Rochester hospital. For thirty years 'Bill' Stoops, as he was best known, was a mate on Ohio and Mississippi river boats. For the past five years he had lived the life of a recluse to some extent in a houseboat at the Beaver Boat club's landing."

COMMENCEMENT

ton, of the High school faculty, rehearsed the graduates for the monologue, which was written by Misses May Bonds, Marjorie Flegle and Elizabeth Weemer.

The second part was a clever one-act comedy, "The Superior Sex," and as a class play it proved most adaptable. The thread of a plot furnished much amusement. Miss Emily Pembroke, a bride to be, is entertaining her bridal party, and some clever toasts were proposed. Suddenly consternation is caused among the guests by a noise in a closet, supposed to be caused by a burglar. After many minutes of suspense and comedy, the hero, James Pembroke, appears on the scene and armed with a gun discovers that the cause of the trouble is nothing more than a peevish alligator. His bravery unites him with his sweetheart and happiness follows.

The acting of Miss Martha Cope as Julia Osborne, and Miss Clara Stewart as Miss Emily Pembroke, were the features of the evening. Miss Ruth McChesney as Hannah, the maid, had a role which she carried out with especial merit. Miss Pauline Hank, as Cynthia Pepper, an old maid, and Miss Nina Lee Savage as a suffragette, won frequent applause for their clever impersonation of their lines. Miss Lorraine Sutherland as Henrietta Page, was clever in her part. All the guests at the entertainment did good work with their lines. They were: Miss Grace McGathery, as Virginia Morris; Miss Stella Anderson, as Elizabeth Earle; Miss Marguerite Merri-gold, as Winifred Kent; Miss Grace Hillis, as Edith Lee; Miss Kathleen Garrow as Flora McGinnis; Prof. Hugh B. Craig, as James Pembroke, the hero, to whom the girls drank the toast as the superior sex, was clever in his lines.

The class play was rehearsed by Miss Elizabeth Graham, of the English department. It was one of the most successful plays ever presented by the High school students. The entire class day exercises were successful, although the stereopticon used in the lighting effects was damaged by a fall shortly before the drawing of the curtain. Music was furnished by Miss Adah Brazelton, Mr. T. Cooney and Mr. Clark Bondurant.

The reception tendered by the student body and faculty at the Three Links building was one of the most enjoyable features of commencement week. It is probable that at all of the future commencements that the plan of each class giving a reception will be eliminated and the student body combine. The graduates and members of the faculty formed a receiving line for the several hundred visitors that called during the evening. Later dancing was enjoyed for several hours. Light refreshments were served.

The evils of riches are seldom manifest to those who possess them.
